

Contact our Helpline

01462 454986

9am – 5pm, Monday – Friday

The Dyspraxia Foundation has really helped with his self-esteem and the relationship with me and his Dad. We now 'get' that he isn't being naughty most of the time - he's just finding the easy stuff really, really hard and it isn't his fault!

Kathryn

Contact the Dyspraxia Foundation Helpline Service today - we're here to help.

The Dyspraxia Foundation Helpline is a confidential service manned by trained volunteers from 9am – 5pm, Monday – Friday thanks to a grant from the Big Lottery Fund. The service has been set up to offer advice and support to parents, families, carers, adults with dyspraxia and professionals working in health, education and employment. Please call 01462 454986 or use the 'Helpline' tab on the homepage of our website to send an email enquiry.

Website: www.dyspraxiafoundation.org.uk

For further copies of this poster or to make a general enquiry to the Dyspraxia Foundation, please contact Tel: 01462 455016 Email: info@dyspraxiafoundation.org.uk

