

New book and conference notes added to website to benefit members!

A new book is now available to view in the members-only section of the website! Charity Vice Chair, speaker and author Gill Dixon has kindly donated a comprehensive book to directly benefit the members of the Foundation.

‘Dyspraxia—The Foundations’ contains over 100 pages including an overview of dyspraxia; movement; characteristics and the impact on learning and living; family matters; involving professionals; visual problems and practical hints, tips and strategies for supporting children at home and at school.

In addition to a full length DVD –‘Introducing Matthew – a child with dyspraxia’, a range of factsheets and films in the new area also includes speakers notes from the recent conference in Bristol ‘Dyspraxia: There’s more to it than just motor skills’.

There has never been a better time to join the Dyspraxia Foundation and support our work. Join now for membership until 1st April 2016!

Full membership of the Dyspraxia Foundation starts at just £25 for the year.
